44 accredited institution of higher education, and (B) passed an 45 examination prescribed by the department; and (2) verification from a 46 supervising licensed marital and family therapist that the applicant is 47 working toward completing the postgraduate experience required for 48 licensure as a marital and family therapist under subdivision (3) of 49 subsection (a) of this section. The fee shall be one hundred twenty-five 50 dollars for each initial application.

51     ~~[(b)]~~ (c) The department may grant licensure without examination, 52 subject to payment of fees with respect to the initial application, to any 53 applicant who is currently licensed or certified as a marital or marriage 54 and family therapist or a marital and family therapist associate in 55 another state, territory or commonwealth of the United States, 56 provided such state, territory or commonwealth maintains licensure or 57 certification standards which, in the opinion of the department, are 58 equivalent to or higher than the standards of this state. No license shall 59 be issued under this section to any applicant against whom 60 professional disciplinary action is pending or who is the subject of an 61 unresolved complaint.

62     ~~[(c) Licenses issued]~~ (d) (1) A license issued to a marital and family 63 therapist under this section may be renewed annually in accordance 64 with the provisions of section 19a-88, as amended by this act. The fee 65 for such renewal shall be three hundred twenty dollars.

66     (2) Each licensed marital and family therapist applying for license 67 renewal shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the commissioner of 68 having participated in continuing education programs. The 69 commissioner shall adopt regulations, in accordance with chapter 54,
70 to ~~[(1)]~~ (A) define basic requirements for continuing education 71 programs, which shall include not less than one contact hour of 72 training or education each registration period on the topic of cultural 73 competency and, on and after January 1, 2016, not less than two 74 contact hours of training or education during the first renewal period 75 in which continuing education is required and not less than once every 76 six years thereafter on the topic of mental health conditions common to 77 veterans and family members of veterans, including ~~[(A)]~~ (i)
78 determining whether a patient is a veteran or family member of a 79 veteran, ~~[(B)]~~ (ii) screening for conditions such as post-traumatic stress
80 disorder, risk of suicide, depression and grief, and ~~[(C)]~~ (iii) suicide
81 prevention training, ~~[(2)]~~ (B) delineate qualifying programs, ~~[(3)]~~ (C) 82 establish a system of control and reporting, and ~~[(4)]~~ (D) provide for 83 waiver of the continuing education requirement for good cause.

84     (3) A license issued to a marital and family therapist associate shall 85     expire on or before thirty-six months after the date on which such 86     license was issued and may be renewed once for an additional thirty-87     six months in accordance with the provisions of section 19a-88, as 88     amended by this act. The fee for such renewal shall be two hundred 89     twenty dollars.

90     (4) Each licensed marital and family therapist associate applying for 91     license renewal shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the commissioner 92     of working toward completing the postgraduate experience required 93     for licensure as a marital and family therapist under subdivision (3) of 94     subsection (a) of this section and the potential for successful
95     completion of such experience prior to the expiration of the thirty-six-96     month renewal period.

97     [(d)] (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an applicant 98     who is currently licensed or certified as a marital or marriage and 99     family therapist in another state, territory or commonwealth of the 100    United States that does not maintain standards for licensure or 101    certification that are equivalent to or higher than the standards in this 102    state may substitute three years of licensed or certified work 103    experience in the practice of marital and family therapy, as defined in 104    section 20-195a, in lieu of the requirements of subdivisions (2) and (3)
105    of subsection (a) of this section.

106    Sec. 3. Subdivision (1) of subsection (e) of section 19a-88 of the 2016 107    supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is 108    substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2016):
